Government of India (Legislative Department) Delhi, 3rd January 1924.

No. [illegible] Dated, Bangalore, 5th January 1924.

From [illegible] Esq., C.S.I., C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of India,

To The Secretary to the Government of Mysore.

Sir,

I am directed to forward herewith for information a copy of the accompanying cuttings from the proceedings of the Legislative Assembly of 1923 and to say that the Government of India have decided that the following procedure should be followed in dealing with the representations made by the Assembly in the course of its Session.

2. Each subject should be worked up as a separate case. Where the reply of Government is to the effect that the representation is 'noted' or 'is under consideration', the subject should be further investigated, but where the reply is 'recorded', 'not feasible' or words to like effect, no further action need be taken. Such cases may simply be filed on despatch after submission to the Secretariat officers concerned. Similarly, no action need be taken on subjects that have been withdrawn; no reply need be given to the mover of a subject if that subject has not been taken up for discussion owing to the absence of the proposer.

3. The Representative Assembly Section will keep a register in the form appended hereto wherein the action taken by the different Departments will be noted from time to time.

Intimation of the final disposal of any subject and the manner thereof should be sent to the Representative Assembly Section for making necessary entries in the Register referred to above.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
By Order,
for Chief Secretary to Government.
